

Kaizen Consulting

Object Oriented Programming Report

Object Oriented Principles present in our system

- Abstraction – in order to create an account and use our website the user needs to know how to interact with the web page, and they do not need to interact with the backend code.
- Encapsulation – All of the data fields in the classes are private to hide data and protect the data integrity.